2009/2010 Website Program Description

(NOTE: This program is no longer available. Contact the Monroe Institute using the link on the Details section below if you wish to learn how to become an Outreach Trainer.

(2009 only- This program is designed to provide a worldwide system of well-prepared TMI trained and certified Outreach facilitators. It consists of an online training module, a 5-day residential training module and a mentoring module. Upon approved completion of these 3 modules, you will be certified to facilitate outreach programs around the globe.)

Module 1: Completion of Home Study.

This portion of the FTP training process is executed online and focuses intensively on the background study needed to knowledgeably represent The Monroe Institute.
Home study consists of the following:

- Study of The Monroe Institute and its purpose, organization, activities, and history
- The life, experience and philosophy of Robert Monroe
- Hemi-Sync® technology
- Hemi- Sync® research
- Hemi- Sync® products
- Basic marketing skills and execution

Required reading materials:

- Journeys Out of the Body by Robert Monroe
- Far Journeys by Robert Monroe
- Ultimate Journey by Robert Monroe
- The Journey of Robert Monroe by Ronald Russell
- Focusing the Whole Brain by Ronald Russell
- Mind Trek: Exploring Consciousness, Time, and Space through Remote Viewing by Joseph McMoneagle

Other required information from The Monroe Institute and other web pages as indicated.

Recommended reading:

- The Conscious Universe by Dean Radin
- Think Logically, Live Intuitively by J. R. Madaus
- The Vast Enquiring Soul by Ronald Russell

To continue to Module 2 the trainee must attain a passing grade in online and open-book examinations.

. The price for Module 1 is $275. ($500 in 2014)

Module 2: Completion of a 5-day residential program.

The FTP Residential program is focused on presentations, discussions, and a demonstration of competence in the delivery and execution of normal Outreach Facilitator activities.

The Residential FTP program will include:

- A demo Excursion Workshop
- Simulations of typical trainer skills required to effectively facilitate an Excursion Workshop
- Identifying and improving organizational skills
- Comprehensive education about facilitator policies of The Monroe Institute
- Preparation for the Mentoring stage

To continue to Module 3 the trainee must attain a passing assessment grade in the different activities and receive recommendation by the assessment committee.

The price for Module 2 is $1125 to cover food and lodging costs.

Module 3: The mentoring process.

The Outreach Facilitator will be assigned an experienced TMI Facilitator to mentor him/her in the organization, preparation and execution of one Excursion Workshop.

The trainee will:

- Give two presentations regarding the Hemi-Sync® process at some time prior to the Excursion program with the advice of the mentor.
- Organize and host one Excursion Workshop with a minimum of four participants, with the assistance and feedback of a mentor.
- Pay the cost of travel, lodging, and food for the Facilitator/mentor.
- The Monroe Institute will reimburse the Facilitator/mentor.

Once the process is completed to the satisfaction of the assessment committee with input from the mentor, the trainee will be certified as a Monroe Institute Outreach Facilitator.

- The Monroe Institute will sign a contract with the Outreach trainer, enabling him/her to organize and offer the Excursion Workshop as an official TMI program.
- The Outreach Facilitator will be required to sign an agreement to abide by the TMI policies and code of ethics for Outreach Facilitators.

- The Outreach Facilitator can announce his/her programs on the TMI website, and will be given access to his/her own basic web page to include details about his/her activities.
- The Outreach contract will be renewable every three years, pending completion of the requisites for maintaining Outreach Facilitator status as determined by TMI.
- The Outreach Facilitator will have access to continued online and/or residential trainings to facilitate other Outreach programs designed by TMI.
